HAYWOOD COUNTY ARTS COUNCIL Watercolor & Wax Open Now Waynesville, N.C., March
The Haywood County Arts Council (HCAC) is excited to announce that the Watercolor & Wax exhibit is open and will run through April 28. The 2018 exhibit features 8 wonderful local artists including Barbara Brook, Melba Cooper, Mary Decker, Joan Doyle, Jo Ridge Kelley, Chelsea Summers, Ann Vasilik and Maureen Simon. The Haywood County Arts Council's Watercolor and Wax exhibit will include two and three-dimensional works of art. The juxtaposition of these two very different mediums will capture viewer imaginations in multiple ways, with works ranging from the ethereal to the corporeal. Gallery visitors are in for a treat. Leigh Forrester, HCAC Interim Executive Director explains, "Like all of our exhibits, this one will feature several of our most talented local artists but this show promises a great deal of variety in style and content as well. You won't want to miss this exhibit." Visit the Haywood County Arts Council at 86 N. Main Street in Waynesville to view the variety of art for sale. For more information about the Haywood County Arts Council, visit HaywoodArts.org.
