About the festival

The Church Street Art & Craft Show has been drawing thousands of visitors to Downtown Waynesville during the height of the vibrant color season for 40 years. Many of the region's best artists, crafters, demonstrators, musicians and food vendors gather from around the southeast to transform Waynesville's Historic Main Street district into a vendor marketplace of original, high quality, handmade items.

What began as a small gathering of artisans on Church Street has evolved into an annual juried art and craft show now widely known as one of the finest in the region. Within two years, the show outgrew Church Street and moved to Waynesville's historic Main Street.

Downtown Waynesville's picturesque Main Street is closed to vehicular traffic the day of the show, transforming the street into a lively celebration of handmade artisan crafts, live Appalachian music and dance. Food vendors will add to the festive atmosphere, against a dramatic backdrop of mountains draped in the vibrant Autumn colors.

Founded by nationally acclaimed colored pencil artist, Teresa Pennington, and Main Street Businessman Richard Miller, the Church Street Art & Craft Show is now sponsored by the Town of Waynesville's Downtown Waynesville Commission (DWC).

The show will be held from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. rain or shine.
